

Biography: D. Scott Schrader

Scott Schrader joined Miller & Schrader, P.A. in 1996 and became a partner in May of 1999. As is the practice of all the attorneys at the firm, Mr. Schrader's practice is concentrated solely in the area of estate planning and administration, as well as estate litigation and disputes. He advises clients with respect to a wide range of issues relating to wills and trusts, estate planning, trust administration, charitable giving, life insurance, and taxes.

Mr. Schrader is a 1992 graduate of Ouachita Baptist University where he received degrees in both Business Administration and Accounting. He received his J.D. degree from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock School of Law in 1996. Mr. Schrader is licensed to practice before the Arkansas Supreme Court, the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Western Districts of Arkansas, the United States Appellate Court, Eighth Circuit, and the United States Tax Court. He is a member of the Pulaski County Bar Association, Arkansas Bar Association, and American Bar Associations (Real Property, Probate and Trusts Section), the National Committee on Planned Giving and Arkansas Chapter of the NCPG.

Mr. Schrader is an associate member of the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys, and a principal of WealthCounsel, LLC, a national estate planning consulting firm that incorporates a distinctive team approach to creating estate plan designs for high net worth individuals and families, as well as providing education and drafting solutions for estate planning attorneys across the country.
